

Ole Skatka Jensen becomes Vice President, Europe for Nikkiso Clean Energy & Industrial Gases Group

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Temecula, CA, February 1, 2021 - Nikkiso Cryogenic Industries' Clean Energy & Industrial Gases Group ("Group"), a subsidiary of Nikkiso Co., Ltd (Japan), announces that Ole Skatka Jensen has joined the Group as Vice President, Europe.

This important addition to our management team is the result of changes in the market environment and is in line with the objectives of the Industrial Division of Nikkiso to better serve and support our customers in the European Market.

Ole has broad international experience in the Marine and Power Generation sectors, Heavy Machinery and Energy Industries, holding senior roles with Auramarine, Maroka International, MAN SE, and Alfa Laval.

With a mechanical engineering background, he has worked in a diverse range of cultural and business settings, including starting up companies in Malaysia, the Netherlands, and Qatar, and managed sales and service operations in Singapore, Benelux, Middle East, and Finland.

"Ole will be a perfect addition to our management team with his proficiency in leading multiple international companies, combined with his hands-on approach and extensive knowledge of the Marine and Power Generation Market Segments" according to Peter Wagner, CEO of Cryogenic Industries and President of the Group.

In addition to his role as Vice President Europe for the CEIG Group, Ole will assume the legal responsibility of the ACD Cryo GMBH company, based in Bad Bellingen, Germany.
